

What have we heard them say? What can we imagine them saying?

What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams? What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

Puling party's victory has been broad-based gaining seats in the most parts of the country, and across the rural urban divide, cementing its pole position in Indian politics.

overall victory margins has widend from 14 percentage points in 2014 to 16 percentage points in 2019, driven primarily by ruling party's rising margins.

In 2047, it is expected that our nation would complete a hundred years of freedom. The ruling party also pledges to make the next five years as the foundations of this vision.

They also introduced the 75 goals for the country to help strengthen India and bring about positive change in the life of every Indian.

The candidates ability to secure ever-bigger victories seems to be linked to its ability to get more people out to vote has noted in the 2019 Lok sabha election.

Political Juggernauts: A
Quantitative Analysis Of Candidates In The 2019 Lok
Sabha Elections

They also set a goal to achieve the target of doubling farmer's income by 2022 and to enable the creation of 10,000 new Farmer Producer Organizations.

What behavior have we observed? What can we imagine them doing?

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties? What other feelings might influence their behavior?

They worked towards ensuring that maximum farmers get income support under the Pradhan Mantri Kisan Samman Nidhi Yojana.

Provided short-term new agriculture loans up to Rs 1 lakh at 0% interest rate for 1-5 years on the condition of prompt repayment of the principal amount.

Joblessness being at a four-decade high, a deepening agrarian crisis and a recent spike in food prices, it was widely expected that economic issues would end up mattering the most to Indians when they vote in the Lok sabha elections.

As far as the issues of national security, the Pulwama terrorist attack and India's air strikes in Pakistan are also concerned for the candidates to get votes for the election.

Working towards assisting the maximum number of fishermen by ensuring the availability of storage and other infrastructure under a new 'Matsya Sampada Yojana'.

Clubbing all the economy-related answers such as unemployment, price rise, poverty, wages, and salaries, GST and demonetisation together, then, overall, economic issues seems to have mattered to us the most.